The document contains scientific graphs and data related to the analysis of argon isotopes in alunite. The graphs illustrate the percentage of 39Ar released in relation to temperature, apparent age, and Ca/K and Cl/K ratios. The data includes energy barriers, Arrhenius plots, and mixing models, with specific values and parameters provided in the text and graphs.